UNIVERSITY OF MADRAS

The University of Madras was formally established on September 5, 1857 and undertook as its motto as 'Doctrina Vim Promovet Insitam' (Learning promotes [one's] innate talent). Robert Chisholm was commissioned in 1861 to build the first building the University which is now a magnificently renovated heritage monument.

The first Vice-Chancellor of the University was Sir Christopher Rawlinson, also the Chief Justice of Madras. This practice of part time Vice-Chancellors (majority from the High Court bench) was continued until 1923. The University at its inception comprised of four faculties – Arts, Law, Medicine and Engineering, and examined candidates for degrees in all these disciplines. However, consequent amendments to the Madras University Act, the Law, Medical and Engineering faculties earlier affiliated to this University have been since shifted to the newly created Dr. Ambedkar Law University, Dr. MGR Medical University and the Anna University respectively.

The University of Madras was the first to introduce autonomous colleges within the University system in 1978-79. Since then, out of 121 affiliated institutions 23 have become autonomous.

The opening of the golden page in the history of the University of Madras was with, the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) accrediting it at the 'Five Star' level took place in 2000. The University Grants Commission (UGC) has conferred the special status of 'University with Potential for Excellence' in the same year. Presently NAAC has reaccredited the University of Madras with 'A' Grade.

The innovations introduced in the last decade have been many. At present there are 86 teaching and research departments in the University, grouped under 18 Schools. Within the Chennai Metropolitan area the University is now spread over six campuses such as (1) The Chepauk Main Campus, (2) The Guindy Campus, (3) The Marina Campus, (4) The Taramani Campus, (5) The Chetpet Campus (The Madras University Union), (6) The Maduravoyal Campus (Field Laboratory). The University offers several Masters and Research Programmes.

INSTITUTE OF DISTANCE EDUCATION

The Institute of Correspondence Education (ICE), as in Madras University Act 1923 Vol I (2001 Edition) Chapter VIII, is Statue 2. III, now called as Institute of Distance Education (IDE) was established in 1981.

Having completed 39 years, the Institute of Distance Education today is a mega Institute with a student enrolment of more than 1 lakh. The objective of the Institute of Distance Education (IDE) is to enable learners to achieve educational, career and personal goals.

The Institute of Distance Education at present offers 61 Degree Programmes : Undergraduate 15, Postgraduate 20, PG Diploma 8, Diploma 11, and Certificate 7.

Admissions are open throughout the year in the Academic Year Stream (July to June) as well as Calendar Year Stream (January to December).

In order to meet the growing demand, 115 number of Learner support centers have been established. Recently Institute of Distance Education has introduced facilities like online admission and online payment system to the students. [Refer Page No. 31-37 for list]
